Copyright case: The Music Mobile, Sweden

Johan Norderyd (Lindahl) · Sunday, June 17th, 2018

The Supreme Court clarified the circumstances under which private copying levies should be paid by importers of cell phones, and reached the conclusion that if two technically independent devices have such a close connection that they together make up one device, such device could be subject to the provisions regarding private copying levies.

Case date: 29 December 2017

Case number: T 3973-15

Court: Supreme Court of Sweden
